

Under the direct supervision of senior team members, the Associate Banker will be responsible for supporting the development, structuring and implementation of investments in a variety of sectors including project preparation, appraisal, due diligence, financial analysis and implementation monitoring.